

Almancil

Originally a ruin dating back to the 18th century, the villa has been renovated, rebuilt and extended over a period of ten years by a couple of Parisian antique dealers with a love for Portugal and the Algarve. A blend of diverse influences, from Portuguese to Provençal, this characterful, sumptuous Quinta is ideally situated within the Golden Triangle, near Almancil, with views across the countryside to the sea. Equally it is only minutes away from the premium golf courses of Quinta do Lago and Vale do Lobo, as well as spas, bars, restaurants and beautiful beaches. The property is majestically nestled within a verdant, entirely landscaped setting, covering almost 10,000 sqm, featuring both Mediterranean (some olive trees are centuries old) and exotic vegetation. More than ten varieties of palm trees provide shade within this park-like garden, refreshed by numerous fountains, where you can read or rest during the heat of the day, and contemplate the original sculptures (some of which are over three metres high). The property is entirely walled-in, ensuring total privacy and seclusion.
